UT Courses Offered Y-12 Shift Employees

Shift employees in Y-12 and other Carbide installations in Oak

Ridge soon will have an oppor-tunity to become college students. George W. Gleaves, University of Tennessee Extension Instruction Coordinator, last week an-nounced a new plan to enable the shift workers to study courses with credit on University of Tennessee degrees in engineering and business administration. The new plan will be started in January.

Double Classes Planned

The plan involves a double section system whereby material presented in a morning class is repeated at an evening session. The shift employee can attend either section, depending on his work schedule. All classes will be held at the Oak Ridge High School.

Courses to be offered will be selected by the shift workers themselves. A survey will be conducted in V-12 within the next ducted in Y-12 within the next few days when an enrollment form will be circulated. The form will list the courses offered and give other details of the proposed

The new plan was thoroughly discussed at a meeting November 17 of the Oak Ridge Adult Education Program Advisory Council, which with the university authorities is making the new program possible. Representing Y-12 shift employees at this meeting was D. L. Dagley, of the Alloy Division. Loren Lawhorn, of the Training Department, is the Y-12 member of the AEP Council.

The number of classes for shift employees to be formed, of course, depends on the response to the survey now being conducted.

Children's Theater To Give 'Castle Capers' Next Week

cast of 18 youngsters, most of them children of Carbide employees, will present "Castle Capers" for the Oak Ridge Children's Theater at 2 p.m. Saturday and Sunday, December 12 and 13 at the Jefferson Junior High School auditorium. "Castle Capers" is a play for children and will include a dancing and acro-batic act. Mrs. Marshal Lock-hart, wife of George Lockhart, of the Y-12 Planning and Estimating Department, is director of the production. She has staged several plays for the Children's Theater in the past.

Dance Party Tickets Now On Sale; Children Parties Being Planned

Applications For Youngsters' Events Pouring In; Bill Dexter's Orchestra To Play For Dance

The Christmas pace is increasing rapidly around the Y-12 Recreation Office in preparing for the Yuletide festivities. The Christmas season is just around the corner and the Recreation Office is trying to complete arrangements for everyone as soon as possible.

The five Christmas parties for the kiddies will be a big attraction for all concerned. The parties will be held at the Oak Ridge High School auditorium on Monday, December 21 and 22 at 10 a.m. and 1 p.m. on both days. Another party for the Gamble Valley children will be held on Tuesday, December 22 at 11 a.m.

The Recreation Office staff has secured the services of Bill Dexter and his well-known orchestra from Knoxville for the Christmas Dance Party, which will be held on Friday, December 18, from 9 p.m. until 1 a.m.

Dexter's orchestra is one of the most popular bands in East Tennessee and is widely known for its wonderful music and entertainment.

Dance Tickets On Sale

Tickets for the Dance Party will sell for $1 each and may be obtained from members of the Y-12 Girls Club as well as from the

Requests Pouring In

Many application blanks began pouring into the Recreation Office last week for tickets to the var-ious children's parties. The first application to be received was from H. F. Ballenger, of the Superintendent's Department, who asked for tickets for his two youngsters, Timothy and Kenneth. Parents of Y-12 children are urged to, wherever it is possible, to send their children to the parties by themselves or have one of the older children in charge of Continued on Page 4

CAFETERIA SPECIAL FEATURES MEAT LOAF WITH MUSHROOM GRAVY

The tasty Thursday Special Lunch at the Y-12 Cafeteria tomorrow, Thursday, December 3, will feature meat loaf with mushroom gravy as the entree. The entire lunch costs only 50 cents and includes a vegetable, choice of salad or dessert and rolls and butter.

Camera Club To Hold Election December 8

The last meeting of the year by the Carbide Camera Club, set for next Tuesday night, December 8, will feature the election of officers for the coming year and a black and white print competition, it was announced last week by Janet Cisar, president of the club. The meeting will be held at 7:30 p.m. in the club headquarters in the Y-12 East Portal building and all members of the organization are urged to be present. May Nominate From Floor

A nominating committee headed by Miss Cisar, a Carbide employee in the Y-12 Plant Area, will submit a slate of candidates at the Tuesday night meeting. Other nominations may be made from the floor if club members so desire.

In addition to Miss Cisar, the retiring officers who have served during 1953 are Robert Freestone, Oak Ridge National Laboratory, vice president; and George Be-gun, another Carbide employee in the Y-12 Plant Area, secretarytreasurer. Print Contest Subject "Open"

The photographic print contest will be "open" as to subject, not being limited to any single topic. As a result a varied and excellent collection of entries are expected.

The Carbide Camera Club is composed of amateur photogra-phers from Y-12, K-25 and ORNL. The club members have access to the club rooms, in which considerable equipment for developing film and making prints is available.

32 Years Of Marriage Brought No Such Confusion To Wife Of Y-12 Guard As Identifying Son Of Y-12er As 'Snicklefritz'

When all the whoopin' and hollerin' about the "Snicklefritz" contest, conducted by Oak Ridge Radio Station WATO, was over last week it was the wife of one Y-12er and the son of another who turned out to be the principal beneficiaries. Mrs. C. H. Nicely, whose husband is a veteran member of the Y-12 Guard Department, won all the loot for guessing the identity of Jay Bow-les as "Snicklefritz." The 11-year-

Dr. Kasha To Address ACS Body Thursday

The East Tennessee Chapter of the American Chemical Society will hear an address by Dr. Michael Kasha, professor of chemistry at Florida State University, Tallahassee, at its December 3 in Oak Ridge. The business meeting will be held at 8:30 p.m. in the Woodland School auditorium, which will be preceded by a dinner at 6:45 p.m. at the Oak Ter-

"Emission Spectroscopy of Complex Molecules" will be the subejct of Dr. Kasha's talk. The fundamental basis for interpretation of the electronic transitions in complex molecules from the point of view of the spectroscopist will be discussed.

Dr. Kasha has been with Florida State University since 1951. A native of Elizabeth, N. J., he received his B. S. Degree in Chemistry from the University of Michigan and his Ph.D Degree in Physical Chemistry at the University of California in 1945. He did plutonium chemistry research work with the Latimer-Eastman Group of the Manhattan District atomic energy project in 1944 until the end of World War II in 1946. He continued his studies after the war at the University of Chicago and Manchester, England, University under fellowships granted by the Atomic Energy Commission and the Guggenheim Foundation.

Fishing Contest Nearing Finish

Fine Prizes Offered Winners In Big Event

Y-12 fishermen are reminded that only 29 more days remain in the big 1953 Annual Fishing Contest. The event officially closes at midnight, December 31.

Fishermen have until January 15 to send entry blanks with results and photographs to the Recreation Office, North Portal, for consideration for prizes offered to the winners in the different classes of fish. Winners will be announced after the official deadline of January 15.

Prizes will be given in various species of fish including largemouth, smallmouth and striped bass, walleyed pike, crappie, bream, trout, catfish, drum and carp. A clear photograph of the fisherman posing a side view of his catch must accompany each entry and no contestant may receive more than one award in any one division.

The field is still wide open for prizes and entry blanks may be obtained from the Y-12 Recreation Office. There is no entry fee and all Y-12 anglers are urged to get their entries into the contest as soon as possible.

Spotters Top Rams In Mixed League

The improving Spotters made history in the Mixed League last week at the Central alleys as they handed the front running Rams a four-point whitewashing. Whitewash victories were common around the loop as the Papis turned in a neat victory over the Hubs and the Cards also dealt the Pin Balls a blanking. A three-point win was turned in by the Wheels over the hustling Ponies.

The Papis stroked a 624 scratch game and a 1751 scratch series while the Cards rolled a 784 handicap single and a 2211 handicap series. Individual scoring honors for the week went to Juanita Pitt, Papis, as she swept the boards with a 180 scratch game, boosted to 215 with handicap, a 502 scratch series, increased to 607 with handicap. Gib Hatmaker, Cards, rolled a 180 scratch game while Howard Horne, Wheels, turned in a fine 215 handicap game. J. D. Brown, Papis, tallied a 462 scratch series and Bill North, Papis, chalked up a 597 handicap series.

Rifle Team Scores 14-Point Total

The Y-12 rifle team of the Oak Ridge Indoor Rifle League had a rough time last week as they finished fourth in scratch firing and fifth in handicap totals. The scores for the various teams are computed on a weekly basis and the Y-12ers wound up with a total of 14 points for the week.

Scratch scores for Y-12 were led by W. R. McIntosh with 168; followed by W. D. Cunningham 163; C. G. Brewster 162; and R. L. Vanderpool 132. Handicap firing was paced by McIntosh with 193.963; followed by Brewster 193.920; Cunningham 190.664; and Vanderpool 189.120.

Carl Brewster, captain of the Y-12 team, can use more shooters and anyone interested is urged to call Brewster at the Medical Department, telephone 7554.

THIS LUSCIOUS CRAPPIE formerly was a native of Watts Bar Lake before he was lured from his watery residence to a frying pan, with time out to be entered in the Annual Y-12 Fishing Contest, by Ross Eichorn, of Property Sales. The fish was caught near Eagle Lodge on a minnow. Y-12 anglers are reminded that the Y-12 Annual Fishing Contest runs for the remainder of the year and that a lot of the big ones haven't been caught yet.

Y-12 Pistol Team Firing In City Loop

The Y-12 pistol team, headed by John Gallimore of Health Physics, is off and shooting in the Oak Ridge Winter Pistol League. The Y-12ers have amassed a total of 15 points, which was computed after the second week of firing. K-25 was leading the circuit with 24 points.

Results of the third week of firing saw Gallimore leading the scratch scores with a 245; followed by T. J. Bush 239; P. H. Williams 232; C. G. Brewster 193; and J. V. Bibee 188 for a total of 1097. Handicap firing saw Bush lead the Y-12ers with 289.410; followed by Bibee 287.568; Gallimore 285.766; H. E. Dake 285.693; and Brewster 284.560 for a total handicap score of 1432.997.

New Team To Roll In Y-12 B League

The Y-12 B Bowling League, which rolls at the Oak Terrace alleys at 6 p.m., each Thursday, will have a new team to replace the ADP which has been dropped from the league. Carl Frazier, of ADP, will captain the new pinsters. No new name has been given the new representative as yet.

The greatest failure of all is the man who fails even to try.

Plant League Meeting Held

Six Teams Are Set For Basketball Play

A lively session of Y-12 Plant League basketball managers was held last week at the Recreation Office. The main item on the agenda was the discussion for the organization of a Y-12 Plant Basketball League this season.

Six teams were represented in the circuit and they are listed as follows with managers:

Maintenance, Morris Bailis, manager.

Duds, Charley Peterson, manager.

Plant Protection, M. L. Woodard, manager. Engineers, Walter Simmons, manager.

ADP, Carl Frazier, manager.
A team not named, managed by

Volleyball League Nearing Finish Line

Everything is in a turmoil in the Y-12 Plant Volleyball League as three teams are tied for the top spot. The season is scheduled to be completed on Monday night, December 7 so all the teams are battling right down to the last wire. The Jumping Jax, captained by Bill Moles, took three big points from Maintenance last week while the Uranium Control Junior Varsity took a forfeit victory from the Duds.

The Oak Ridge City Volleyball League will begin play within the next few days with a varsity team from Y-12 entered in the league. Anyone interested in playing on the team is urged to call the Rec-

Y-12 Women Cagers Performing In Ridge League; Games Will Be Played At High School Gymnasium

The Y-12 varsity basketball teams, namely the Robins and Cardinals, will begin their regular season play within the next few days. After several weeks of preparation the teams are now ready to furnish keen competition for all opposition.

The Robins will play in the Oak Ridge City League, competing with K-25, Legionettes and Oake Ridge Institute of Nuclear Studies for the league title. The Y-12 sextet will start the season next Wednesday night, December 9, at 9 p.m., at the Oak Ridge High School gymnasium against the ORINS lassies.

The second round of play on December 16 will pit the Robins against the Legionettes in the 7:30 p.m. game, after which the K-25 and ORINS teams will clash at 9 p.m.

The Y-12 women will be piloted by Recreation Supervisor, Bill Stanton. The assistant coach will be Bill Pratt, of ADP Maintenance. Squad members for the Robins this season include Bonnie Roberts, Ruby O'Kain, Helen Brown, Peggy Cowan, Jean Gwinn, Peggy Crews, Nell McGinnis, Joan Howard, Pat Bryant, Lois Secrist, Clogene Keene, Geneva Gearing and Regina Camp.

The Y-12 feminine cagers also will play in the Knoxville Milk Fund Tournament, which is starting Monday night, December 7, in Knoxville.

The Cardinals are ready to go when the first gun sounds and the men are determined to give an all out performance in each contest. Coach Carl Sanders has been working hard with the Cardinals, who include Louis Fitzgerald, Walter Lovell, Ralph Langsjoen, James Seivers, Jim Turner, Hill Henry, Fred Harding, Charley Osborne, Herb Oliver, Bill Helton and Sewell Brown.

The Cardinals will participate in the Knoxville Metro League as there will not be an Oak Ridge Men's City League this year. The Metro League will play on Monday and Wednesday nights of each week at Chilhowee Park gymnasium in Knoxville, beginning January 4. Several exhibition games also will be played by the Y-12 men against strong teams from this area before the Metro League play starts.

C Loop Contenders Tied For Top Spot

The Rusty Five and Glass Arms are running neck and neck in the C League after last week's bowling activities were finished. Both of the league leaders turned in whitewash victories, Rusty Five with a forfeit over the Wash Ups, which have dropped from the league, and the Glass Arms, which blanked the hard fighting Screw Balls. Three-point wins were turned in by the Hornets and Uranium Control Junior Varsity over the Cant Hooks and Hooks, respectively.

Team honors for the week were hogged by the hard rolling Rusty Five, who swept across the boards with a 794 scratch game, boosted to 986 with handicap, a 2278 scratch series, boosted to 2854 with handicap. Varsity Pinmen Lose To City League Foes

The upsy-downsy Y-12 men's varsity keglering club dropped a three-point defeat to the Warner-Guy Co. bowlers in the Oak Ridge City League on November 23 after being on the winning side of their last two or three previous encounters. The Y-12ers' line score was 884, 865, 770—2519, to 890, 839, 826—2555 for the opposition.

George Schierbaum, a newcomer to the varsity team this season, topped the Y-12ers with a respectable series of 539, composed of games of 187, 182 and 170. Following him were Ernie Cobble 170, 203 (top Y-12 score of the night), 147—520; Joe Pryson 178, 163, 162—503; Frank Gragg 193, 137, 167—497; and Jack Spears 156, 180, 124—460.

Badminton Teams Planned For Y-12

Badminton players are needed for the Y-12 teams which will play in the Oak Ridge City Badminton Leagues. Teams will be formed for both men and women for action in the city loops.

Any Y-12ers interested in playing on a Y-12 team are urged to call Spence Wallace, Bldg. 9212, telephone 7135 or the Y-12 Recreation Office, North Portal, telephone 7753.

The sport is being revived in Y-12 after an absence of two years. Several players have signed up for the teams but a few more are needed to round out complete teams.

Physics Seminar Sets Two Meetings In Coming Week

The Oak Ridge Physics Seminar will resume meetings this week with a session scheduled for Friday afternoon, December 4 at 3:15 p.m. in the auditorium of Bldg. 4500, Oak Ridge National Laboratory. All Y-12ers interested in the sessions are invited to attend. N. H. Lazar, of the ORNL Physics Division, will be the speaker. His subject will be "Scintillation Spectroscopy Using Large NaI (TI I) Crystals."

Another session of the seminar will be held at 4 p.m. next Wednesday, December 9, in the West Lounge of the Ridge Recreation Hall. The speaker will be Prof. Pierre Jacqinot, of the Sorbonne University, Paris, France, one of Europe's leading scientists. He will speak on "Fundamental Spectroscopic Research at Laboratories de Bellevue."

Orphans Tie Peons For D Loop Lead

Bowling action in the D League last week saw the improving Orphans, captained by George Rid-dle, clip the Peons for three points to throw the league into a deadlock for first place. Other league action found the Unknowns and Sooners dividing their four points during the night while the cellar dwelling Vectors spanked the Rollers by a three-point margin.

Team totals saw the Orphans blast the maples with a 801 scratch game, boosted to 969 with handicap, going on to roll a 2244 scratch series, increased to 2748 with handicap. Clyde Smith, Orphans, rolled a 191 scratch game and Charley Peterson, Sooners, tallied a 233 handicap game. Scratch series honors for the week belonged to Hobey Thomas, Vectors, with a 499 while "Andy" Anderson, Peons, rolled a 589 handicap series.

IT'S FOR THE BIRDS

A Reuters News Agency dispatch from Australia says Melbourne pigeon owners have blamed atomic blasts at Wooemera for the disappearance, five days later, of birds racing from Bookla to Melbourne. It is claimed radioactive waves neutralized magnetic wave instincts believed to guide pigeons home.

Carbide Man Writes Book On Metallurgy

J. G. Henderson of the South Charleston, W. Va., plant of Car-bide and Carbon Chemicals Company, is the author of the "Metallurgical Dictionary," recently published by the Reinhold Publishing Co. More than 5,000 terms, essential in both production and physical metallurgy, have been defined and described in his book.

Book Took 14 Years

The compilation of a compre-hensive metallurgical dictionary has been no easy task. In fact, it has taken Henderson 14 years of exacting evening and week-end labor! This has been double duty since this spare-time activity has actually been of unusual value in supplementing his full-time work as Staff Engineer on Standards in the Chemical Company's Construction and Design Department. Henderson has been assisted by J. M. Bates, Engineer at the South Charleston plant, in compiling the "Metallurgical Dictionary."

Heretofore, there has been no complete dictionary covering the broad field of metallurgy. The broad field of metallurgy. The resulting work is essentially a compilation and correlation of definitions taken from a vast source of technical literature. In addition, "Metallurgical Dictionary" includes original definitions of a large number of terms that are accepted and discussed, but not concisely defined in modern metallurgical literature. Throughout, the objective has been to out, the objective has been to assemble in an orderly and comprehensive manner single volume — definitions of those terms considered essential to an understanding of the metallurgical literature.

Fills Long-Standing Need

Because it will no longer be necessary to refer to a library of metallurgical literature in an effort to obtain information, it is believed that Henderson's book fills a long-standing need in the metal industries for a usable, up-to-date source of reference.

ENGINEERING DIVISION

John Moynihan, Chemical and Industrial Engineering, had a big time on last week's vacation in Miami, Fla. . . . Roy McKnight and wife made the trip down with Moynihan to visit relatives in Miami.

John Snyder, Technical Engineering, planned to visit New York while vacationing last week.

Emil Sienknecht, Photographic, spent his week off around home in Knoxville.

A well-known Y-12 gent was cornered at a recent party and quizzed quite at length about his ancestry by a blue-blooded lady very society-conscious.

"Were any of your ancestors men of note?" she asked.
"Well," said the Y-12er who has considerable background as a boating enthusiast, "one of them was the most famous admiral of his day. He commended the allied his day. He commanded the allied naval forces of his day."
"Do tell," replied the lady, "and what was his name?"

"Noah," declared the Y-12er as he ducked away.
